SENATOR DICKINSON: A question of Senator Maresh. Senator Maresh, this $176,000 because of the incident in Fremont, what was the result of the injuries and the outcome of the lady?

SENATOR MARESH: Well, she was crippled badly by the gun shot wound and is crippled for life. The court allowed the $176,000 as a valid claim. Instead of appealing it they are....since then the amount of $5,000 has accumulated in interest but rather than to continue the case in higher court the case....they decided...

SENATOR DICKINSON: Did the....the lady is totally disabled for life?

SENATOR MARESH: I think that a large degree of disability.

SENATOR DICKINSON: This is the result of....

SENATOR MARESH: I suppose it was due to the neglect of the guard that was accompanying the man that he was allowed to secure a fire arm.. .

SENATOR DICKINSON: Why was this man released?

SENATOR MARESH: He went to speak to an AA group in Fremont and he got away.

SENATOR DICKINSON: He was under guard, or supposed to have been at the time?

SENATOR MARESH: He was under guard and he got away from the guard and found his wife and shot her.
